For Supervising Teacher Completion:

a. Days of Daily Engagement on educational activities required by the school on days the school is in session: _____

b. Time Value of Student Work Product (measured in days): _____

Attendance approved by Teacher: _____ [insert lesser of a & b]
